

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Frederick "Wayne" Schaunaman was born on April 19, 1927, at Aberdeen, South Dakota, and grew up near Westport, South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Wayne served in the U.S. Army and spent 33 years employed at Kearns Machinery where he repaired Caterpillar equipment for use in building Interstate 90 across South Dakota; and,

Whereas, In 1949, Wayne married Mary Louise Marlow in Aberdeen and to this union two sons were born: Brian and Kim, who further blessed their lives with six grandchildren and five great-grandchildren; and,

Whereas, Wayne and Mary lived and worked in Pierre for over 30 years until they retired and spent some time traveling to Texas; and,

Whereas, Wayne now lives in Sioux Falls and will observe his 80th Birthday with all the good wishes, fanfare and celebration such a milestone warrants, and it is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of this milestone in the life of a man who has lived an exemplary life for all to emulate:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 19, 2007, as in South Dakota, and I join his friends and relatives in wishing him a very happy birthday, good health and great happiness.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventeenth Day of April in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seven.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor
